NEVADA SALES TAX

Storing with us means collecting Nevada sales tax.

Inventory in our Las Vegas warehouse counts as a physical presence in Nevada, so your business owes Nevada sales tax on orders shipped to Nevada customers, starting with the first one. The usual out-of-state threshold ($100,000 in sales or 200 orders a year) does not apply. You're the seller, so collecting and filing stays with you. We provide our warehouse address for your registrations. Nevada also requires us to charge sales tax on the goods we sell you until we have your Nevada resale certificate on file.

01 Nevada State Business License. Apply on the Secretary of State's ORION portal. Out-of-state companies may also need to register as a foreign business.

02 Nevada Sales Tax Permit. Apply on My Nevada Tax. It's $15 per location; a security deposit may apply but is waived under $1,000. List our warehouse as your Nevada inventory location.

03 Send us a resale certificate. Fill out Nevada's resale certificate (TAX-F005) with your permit number, listing House Party Distro as the seller, and email it to us. Once it's on file, we stop charging tax on your goods.

04 Turn on Nevada in Shopify. Settings → Taxes and duties → United States, choose Nevada, and enter your permit number.

05 File and pay. File on My Nevada Tax on the schedule Nevada assigns you, through Shopify Tax automated filing or your accountant.

Other states: each sets its own threshold. Shopify tracks where you stand under liability insights in the same settings page. This is general information, not tax advice; confirm with your accountant.
